Dynamic and versatile actor with over 2 years of training and 6 years experience, seeking agency representation to continue growing across a variety of roles. Known for an easy-going personality and a willingness to fully immerse in roles—even the unconventional or gritty. Skilled in music, including singing and trumpet, with lead roles in both comedy and drama, spanning genres from strong women to dark characters.

I thrive in collaborative environments and I take direction well to bring depth and authenticity to every performance.
